The consumer cannot be subject to any further shipping charges. A manufacturer must repurchase or replace a motor home if either of the following occurs: 1. REFUSAL TO REPAIR If an agent or authorized dealer of a motor home manufacturer, or a repair shop to which the manufacturer referred a consumer, refuses to undertake repairs within 7 days of receipt of notice by a consumer of a nonconformity within the first 18,000 miles of operation or during the period of two years following the date of the motor home's original delivery to the consumer, whichever is earlier, the consumer may send written notice of this refusal to the motor home manufacturer by certified mail, return receipt requested. 10. Notice of nonconformity and final opportunity to repair	For all motor vehicles other than motor homes, none required other than (1) the initial report of nonconformity to the manufacturer, agent or dealer during the first 18,000 miles of operation or during the period of two years following the date of the motor vehicle's original delivery to a consumer, whichever is earlier; and (2) the option of sending notice to the manufacturer, by certified mail return receipt requested, of the agent's or dealer's refusal to undertake repairs. For motor homes: If, during the first 18,000 miles of operation or during the period of two years following the date of the motor vehicle's original delivery to a consumer, whichever is earlier, the same covered nonconformity has been subject to repair two times or the motor home has been out of service by reason of repair for 21 days, the consumer must report this to the motor home manufacturer or its authorized dealer by certified mail, return receipt requested. After the motor home has been out of service by reason of three repair attempts or for at least 36 days, the consumer may institute any proceeding or other action pursuant to the lemon law. This special notification requirement will apply only if the manufacturer or its authorized dealer provides a copy of this requirement to the consumer and the consumer acknowledges receipt in writing. If the consumer has received notice and fails to comply with the special notification requirements, then additional repair attempts or days out of service will not be taken into account in determining whether the consumer is entitled to replacement or repurchase. But any additional repair attempts or days out of service that occur after the consumer complies with the special notification requirements will be taken into account. A repair attempt will not be counted if the repair facility is not authorized by the applicable motor home manufacturer to perform warranty work on the identified nonconformity. It will count as only one repair attempt for a motor home if the same nonconformity is addressed a second time due to the consumer's decision to continue traveling and to seek repair of the same nonconformity at another repair facility rather than wait for the initial repair to be completed.
11. Affirmative defenses	It is an affirmative defense that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) The nonconformity does not substantially impair the value, or (2) The nonconformity is the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modifications or alterations of the motor vehicle.
12. Refund	Purchased Vehicle Refund consists of: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) The full purchase price (cash plus any trade-in allowance); and (2) Fees and charges, including all license fees, registration fees and any similar governmental charges; (3) Less an allowance for the consumer's use of the vehicle in excess of the first 12,000 miles of operation; (4) Less a reasonable allowance for any damage not attributable to normal wear and tear or improvements. The manufacturer is not required to refund any sales tax paid by the consumer. The consumer may receive a refund of such sales tax by applying to the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance. Information provided by the Attorney General's Office indicates the refund will not include other expenses or charges, such as loss of use, insurance premiums and finance charges. Leased Vehicle To the lessor – <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) The lease price, consisting of (a) the lessor's actual purchase cost, (b) the freight cost (if applicable), (c) the cost for accessories (if applicable), (d) any fee paid to obtain the lease, and (d) an amount equal to 5% of the actual purchase cost; (2) Less the aggregate deposit and rental payments paid to the lessor for the leased vehicle. To the lessee – <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) The aggregate deposit and rental payments paid to the lessor; (2) Any trade-in allowance; and

13. Replacement	Replacement is a comparable motor vehicle.
14. Reasonable allowance	Applies to a refund but not to a replacement. The reasonable allowance for the consumer’s use of the vehicle is determined by the “mileage deduction formula”, defined as: $\frac{\text{Miles in excess of 12,000 miles}}{100,000} \times \begin{matrix} \text{purchase price} \\ \text{or} \\ \text{lease price} \end{matrix}$
15. Refund of sales tax	Consumer obtains refund of sales tax from the state.
16. Enhanced damages	If a manufacturer fails to comply with the terms of a decision by an informal dispute settlement procedure within 30 days after receipt of the consumer’s acceptance, the consumer is entitled to recover a fee of $25 for each business day of noncompliance, up to a maximum of $500. The manufacturer is not liable for this fee if the delay is attributable to a consumer who has requested a replacement vehicle built to order or with options that are not comparable to the returned vehicle, or a consumer who has otherwise made compliance impossible within the 30 day period.
17. Attorney’s fees	A court may award reasonable attorney’s fees to a prevailing plaintiff in any judicial action under the lemon law or arising out of an arbitration proceeding with the state-operated arbitration program. A court may also award reasonable attorney’s fees to a prevailing consumer who is required to retain the services of an attorney to enforce collection of an award.
18. Statute of limitations	An action must be commenced within 4 years of the date of the motor vehicle’s original delivery to the consumer.
19. Manufacturer-sponsored arbitration	If a manufacturer has established an informal dispute settlement mechanism, the mechanism must comply with the provisions of the lemon law. The lemon law provisions requiring repurchase or replacement after an inability to repair do not apply to a consumer who has not first resorted to the mechanism. The consumer has the option of submitting any dispute under the lemon law to an alternate arbitration mechanism administered by the New York Attorney General’s Office.
20. State-sponsored arbitration	The consumer has the option of submitting any dispute under the lemon law to an alternate arbitration mechanism administered by the New York Attorney General’s Office.
21. Dealer liability	Nothing in the lemon law imposes any liability on a dealer, or creates a cause of action by a consumer or manufacturer against a dealer.
22. Restrictions on resale of returned vehicles	Lemon Law At the sale or transfer of title by a dealer of any second-hand passenger motor vehicle, the dealer must execute and deliver to the buyer an instrument in writing in a form prescribed by the Commissioner that sets forth the nature of the principal prior use of the vehicle when the vehicle was repurchased under any state’s lemon law, an

The first sentence may be in any size type, and the second sentence must be in exactly 10 point all-capital type: This vehicle has been repurchased pursuant to Section 198-a (new car lemon law) _____ or Section 198-b (used car lemon law) _____ of the General Business Law, as similar statute of another state _____, or an arbitration or alternative dispute procedure _____. IMPORTANT: THIS VEHICLE WAS RETURNED TO THE MANUFACTURER OR DEALER BECAUSE IT DID NOT CONFORM TO ITS WARRANTY AND THE DEFECT OR CONDITION WAS NOT FIXED WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME AS PROVIDED BY NEW YORK LAW. The statement must be given to the prospective purchaser to read and keep prior to signing a contract or making a deposit for the vehicle.
