OHIO LEMON LAW SUMMARY
1. Citation	Ohio Rev. Code Ann. §§ 1345.71 through 1345.78; Ohio Admin. Code §§ 109:4-4-01 through 109:4-5-06.
2. Motor vehicle covered	Covers (1) a passenger car, (2) a noncommercial motor vehicle, or (3) those parts of any motor home that are not part of the permanently installed facilities used for cold storage, cooking, eating and sleeping. A “passenger car” is any motor vehicle that is designed and used for carrying not more than nine persons and includes any motor vehicle that is designed and used for carrying not more than fifteen persons in a ridesharing arrangement. Guidance from the Attorney General’s Office indicates that a pick-up truck used exclusively for business purposes is not covered by the lemon law. A “noncommercial motor vehicle” is any motor vehicle, including a farm truck, that is designed by the manufacturer to carry a load of no more than one ton and is used exclusively for purposes other than engaging in business for profit.
3. Consumer covered	(1) The purchaser, other than for purposes of resale, of a motor vehicle; (2) Any lessee of a motor vehicle for 30 days or more while title remains in the name of a person other than the user; (3) Any person to whom the vehicle is transferred during the duration of the manufacturer’s written vehicle warranty; and (4) Any other person entitled by the terms of the warranty to enforce the warranty.
4. Nonconformity defined	A defect or condition that: (1) Substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of a motor vehicle to the consumer; and (2) Does not conform to the express written warranty of the manufacturer or distributor.
5. Warranty defined	“Express warranty” and “warranty” mean the written warranty of the manufacturer or distributor of a new motor vehicle concerning the condition and fitness for use of the vehicle, including any terms or conditions precedent to the enforcement of obligations under that warranty.
6. Lemon law rights period	Not specified.
7. Manufacturer’s obligation to repair	If a vehicle does not conform to the manufacturer’s written new vehicle warranty and the consumer reports the nonconformity to the manufacturer, its agent or authorized dealer during the period of one year following the date of original delivery or during the first 18,000 miles of operation – whichever is earlier – the manufacturer, its agent or authorized dealer must make any repairs necessary to conform the vehicle to the warranty. Repairs must be made even after the expiration of the one year or 18,000 mile period.
8. Manufacturer’s obligation to repurchase or replace	If the manufacturer or dealer is unable to conform the vehicle to the manufacturer’s written vehicle warranty by repairing or correcting any nonconformity after a reasonable number of repair attempts, the manufacturer must (at the consumer’s option) replace the vehicle with a new vehicle acceptable to the consumer or repurchase the vehicle.
9. Criteria for reasonable number of repair attempts	The lemon law establishes a presumption for determining whether the manufacturer had a reasonable number of attempts to repair. However, case law interprets the lemon law’s presumption as establishing a definition that a reasonable number of repair attempts has been made if, during the period of one year following the date of original delivery or during the first 18,000 miles of operation, whichever is earlier, any of the following occurs: (1) Substantially the same nonconformity has been subject to repair three or more times and either continues to exist or recurs; (2) The vehicle is out of service by reason of repair for a cumulative total of thirty or more calendar days; (3) There have been eight or more attempts to repair any nonconformity; or (4) There has been at least one attempt to repair a nonconformity that results in a condition that is likely to cause death or serious bodily injury if the vehicle is driven, and the nonconformity either continues to exist or recurs.
